

Privacy Policy

Elsternwick Cricket Club Inc.

Introduction

Elsternwick Cricket Club is committed to protecting the privacy of its members and supporters.

Collection of Personal Information

The Club will collect information directly from members and supporters and occasionally from other publically available sources. The club will only collect information that is relevant to the running of the Club and to fostering the relationship between the individual and the Club.

The Club will endeavour to keep any information held accurate, complete and up to date.

Use of Personal Information

Personal information provided to the Club will only be used for the purpose for which it was gathered as stated at the time of collection. The Club gathers information for registration of players with cricket associations, maintaining contact with members and supporters and for other cricket related activities.

The Club may use personal information for internal marketing campaigns but will not provide this information to external parties.

Protection of Personal Information

Personal information gathered by the Club will not be passed on to third parties except as provided above. Group emails will have addresses contained in the bcc field so as to remain invisible to other recipients.

Access to Personal Information

Individuals may gain access to their personal information through a written request to the Secretary, or via their personal MyCricket page, for which a log in can be provided.

Opt Out Clause

Individuals may also opt out of receiving any further correspondence or marketing material through a written request to the Secretary.

Individuals may also opt out from having their image or personal details included in any of the Club's official social media posts or published updates through a written request to the Secretary.

Policy Compliance

The Executive Committee will monitor the club's compliance with this policy.
